

Term	Definition	Possible Answers
oppressed	when people are treated harshly and unfairly by their government	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • dynasty • serfdom • abolished • petition • Bloody Sunday • Duma • impoverished • oppressed • Gregory Rasputin • St. Petersburg • abdicate • provisional • Bolsheviks • Vladimir Lenin • exile • civil unrest • United Soviet Socialist Republic (USSR) or Soviet Union • Russian Civil War • Josef Stalin dynasty	when control of a country is passed from family member to family member
Soviet Union	the name given to Russia by the communists
Bloody Sunday	the event where troops fired on protestors and killed over 500 exiled	when a person is forced to leave their country for political reasons
abdicate	give up power
Vladimir Lenin	the leader of the Bolsheviks
Bolsheviks	communist followers of Karl Marx in Russia serfdom	policy of tying the peasants to the land impoverished	poor
Duma	legislative branch
provisional	temporary civil unrest	when civilians are mad and protest or riot
Russian Civil War	the war for control of Russia after Nicholas II gave up the throne petition	a written request for change

Josef Stalin	harsh and cruel leader of USSR after Lenin died
Gregory Rasputin	a Russian holy man whom the Czarina thought was the only man who could save her son's life
St. Petersburg	capital city of Russia abolished	put to an end	